Mischa Elman, Famed
Violinist Here Tuesday

The most brilliant event of the year is the opening concert of the Carmel Music Society Winter Series, and this next Tuesday night's concert with Mischa Elman as the great solo artist bids fair to be a climax of the seven years of the Music Society history.

Critics agree that Mischa Elman possesses one quality in particular that sets him quite apart from all violinists. That is his ability to preserve a luscious tone quality throughout the most intricate of violin technicalities. This artist can do the most amazing assortment of double stops, pizzicati, harmonics and other things from the violinist's stunt box, without for an instant losing the purity and glamour of his rich, sensuous tone.

That his "luscious" tone is rounder, fuller than ever, and his dazzling virtuosity no less but more, if possible, yet matured into the full richness that comes only with such geniuses, seems to be the consensus of all opinions, starting with Olin Downes of the New York Times.

Mr. Elman's program for Tuesday night gives him an opportunity to show the full extent of his powers. It is as follows: Handel, Sonata in A Major; Mozart, Sonata in B flat major, No. 16.

Grazonow, Concert in A minor; Faure-Elman, Apres un Reve; Nin, Sur un air de danse de Pablo Esteve.

Chopin-Wilhelmj, Nocturne; Brahms - Joachim, Hungarian Dance in A major; Vieuxtemps, Ballade and Polonaise.

POSITIONS ARE OPEN

MATHEW STAHL TAKES STUDEBAKER AGENCY

Carmel will be the location for the peninsula agency of the Studebaker car with the taking over of this territory by Mathew Stahl at his place of business on San Carlos near Ocean.

Mr. Stahl has only recently come to Carmel but he is much enthused with business prospects.

The Studebaker display car was to have reached here last week but was tied up by strikes in the East, and Mr. Stahl left last night for San Francisco to bring it down today. He is expected home about 5 o'clock.

SCHOOL NOTES

A penmanship test was given last week to the pupils in all grades and this test will be used as a basis for improvement in penmanship. There will be two or three additional tests given during the year to determine the progress being made and the children will have their own papers so that they may see for themselves whether they have improved. The pupils will be classed in certain groups on the basis of penmanship, which will give each child impetus to try to make the group ahead.

Different groups are contemplating making application to the board of trustees for the use of the gymnasium during the evenings, as follows: Monday evening, volley ball team; Tuesday evening, young women for basket ball and other games; Wednesday evening, men's basket ball teams; Thursday, a group of young men and boys, some of the boys of high school age; Friday, Rev. Willis White and his Filipino group; Saturday, badminton group.

A group of youngsters under the direction of E. R. Calley and Miss Anna Marie Baer worked Saturday morning planting new shrubs and replanting some of the old. They are working to a definite plan of landscaping and plan to have the school grounds in keeping with Carmel tradition.

Tomorrow, Friday, morning the children of the primary grades will give a Halloween program in the auditorium at 11:20. All friends of the children and any who are interested are cordially invited to be present.

Following is the program:

Mrs. Trowbridge—Low First. Home Activities in Song; Mother, Florence Lee Koepf; The Doll, Irene Erickson; Peterkin, Dicky Sayers; Pussy, Stephen Plank; Topsy, Emilie Noller; Little Seamstress, Ester Van Niel; Lilly Duarte.

Billy Aakew, Isabelle Rios; Alice Clark, Billy Rissel; Bill Conlon, Marshall Ruhl; John Gulari, Dean Rockwell; Bob Harner, Bob Weer; Billy Marshall, Joyce Waite; Marion Marshall, Ramon Narvaez.

Mrs. Lockwood, second grade.

The Harvest Festival; Queen of the Harvest, Elinor Smith.

Nip, her attendant, Noreen Kelsey.

Apples, Chestnuts; Jimmie Handley; Louis Machado; Bobby Holm; Dick Uzzell; Kraig Short; Junior Levinson; Warren Graft; Patricia Sutherland; Margaret Meadows; Pop Corn Fairies; Rosemary Tarnage; Vivian Ohm.

Nearly All of Local Red Cross
Collections Used Here

As reported in our last edition the budget which the Carmel chapter of the Red Cross aims to secure at its annual drive starting November 11th is $3,000. Of this amount, we are informed, about $165 will go to the National Red Cross at Washington, the balance to be used entirely for local purposes.

Considering the value of the National Red Cross when national or international disaster occurs this small contribution for members of the Carmel chapter is almost insignificant.

In the case of the recent earthquake in southern California the National Red Cross immediately forwarded $100,000 for relief and sent its trained workers to the scene by the fastest means available to see that relief was administered in a thoroughly businesslike manner.

This was only the forerunner of larger contributions by the Red Cross and of contributions from other relief bodies when they had time to fully organize.

Carmel Girl Entertains
At Calif. Garden Club

At the second semi-annual meeting of the California Garden club held last week, Miss Marion Minges, pretty daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Minges of the Carmel grocery delighted the members by two lovely Spanish dances given during the luncheon in Memory Garden of the old Pacific building.

A tour was made by the enthusiasts of many local gardens, including those of Harry Hunt, F. A. Ingalls, Dan Murphy and Mrs. Frederick Flint, Jr. of Pebble Beach.

If the club would take up the question of having the water rates lowered for the county, there would be a great many more beautiful gardens in Carmel than at present.

Play Reading Group
Has Enjoyable Meeting

A group of congenial people are meeting each Monday evening in Pine Inn at 8 o'clock to read plays and are enjoying the occasions greatly.

An attempt is being made to have the plays of a contrasting nature, light and heavy, tragic and gay.

Last Monday the group read Sutton Vane's allegorical drama, "Outward Bound," with the following cast: Lita Bathen, Marion Todd, Holly Smith, Dr. W. B. Williams, Lloyd Weer, Hal Garrett, George McMenamin and Tom Thienes.

Next week the group will read Oscar Wilde's "The Importance of Being in Earnest."

Everyone is welcome to join and those interested are asked to get in touch with some member. Those who wish may take part.

MISS ESTO BROUGHTON
EDITS NEW PAPER

Friends of Miss Esto Broughton will be interested to know that she is editor of "Political Straws," which she designates as "California's Political Weekly."

In her letter to Carmel Sun Miss Broughton says:

"Am sending you a first edition of 'Political Straws.' Trust you will sign the pink slip and become a regular subscriber. All good wishes to Carmel friends."

Carmel folk wish her success in her new venture.

Dr. Grant Phillips
Moves To Highlands

Dr. and Mrs. Grant Phillips are moving their residence this week to the Hill cottage in the Highlands. They formerly had an apartment in connection with Dr. Phillips' office.

The office will continue in the same room on Dolores street, with office phone 829-J, and the residence phone is 1-R-2.

Mayor Steals Wedding
March on Friends

Surprising their many friends, John Lewis Steward, 49, mayor of the City of Monterey, and Anita Juanita Pardee, were married in San Francisco Monday by Judge Thomas F. Graham.

The mayor gave out the information that he was going away on business when he left about five days previous to the marriage.

The bride is the daughter of the pioneer Doud family of Monterey, a daughter of the former Ellen Doud.

Carmel folk will recall the recent election in Monterey when Mr. Steward was chosen to the office of mayor. He has hosts of friends here.

You Are Invited To Attend Luncheon

The Service clubs of the district will meet at Asilomar Thursday, November 2, for luncheon from 12 to 1, and will discuss ways and means of raising funds for the Community Chest.

The luncheon is open to all who are interested and it is desired that as many as are able to do so will attend. The luncheon will be 60 cents. A program will be prepared, which will make the hour worth much more than the small price asked.

The workers are very anxious to get before the public the great needs and benefits from this organization.

Well Known Carmelite
Wed In Yuma

Word was received this week of the wedding in Yuma, Ariz., the latter part of the week of Captain Patrick Henry Hudgins and Mrs. Frances Turner Daniels, daughter of Harry Turner, on San Antonio.

After a honeymoon trip, Captain and Mrs. Hudgins will return to Carmel where they will be at home in the Turner guest house.

Both the contracting parties number their friends by their acquaintances here, and all wish them a long and happy wedded life.

Carmel Women's Club
Enjoys Travel Book

The book section of the Carmel Women's club discussed "Across the Gobi Desert," by Sven Hedin at their meeting last week. Mrs. James K. Lynch was leader of the discussion and handled the matter capably.

Peninsula Community Chest Drive Starts November 6thTicket Committee Has Lot of Hard Work

The Denny-Watrous gallery has been a very busy place this week what with selling season tickets for the winter course of the Carmel Music society and single seats for the appearance of Mischa Elman the 31st.

A great deal of credit is due the women and men of the society who give of their time and money to provide for Carmel a program such as is never found in any other place of this size.

The aim seems to be to develop the musical education of the residents to the point where they are able to decide for themselves when music is music, without having to have the word passed along to them by way of critics on city dailies.

There seems to be a small movement afoot to vote out local musicians in favor of "outsiders." If the local music is not of a high standard, the movement has its good points, but if the movement starts from a desire on the part of someone to show someone else who's who, then it is all wrong. Can there possibly be a "jealousy" motive back of some of the recent objections to the Monterey Peninsula orchestra?

SALINAS POLICE LOCATE
MAN WANTED HERE

When George Lundy, former dishwasher in a Carmel restaurant, was arrested in Salinas charged with being drunk and disorderly, investigation was started and it was found that a warrant was out for him in this city, charging him with petty theft.

Lundy had been charged here with having taken the suitcases from the car of two visitors from San Francisco several months ago, from which he was supposed to have taken a camera and a few other things.

Recently when a real estate agent had the kitchen floor in a house on Monte Verde avenue painted during the absence of the family, he left the back door open so that the paint would dry. Someone cut the screen and entered during the night making tracks all over the floor. The agent called in the police but thought nothing had been taken since there were several small valuables lying about. Later when the family came home, they reported the loss of a diamond ring.

Chief of Police Englund and Officer Guth immediately set about to locate trace of the ring. They found that one jewelry store had purchased the diamond for $20 and another the platinum for 25 cents. The descriptions of the man who had sold them tallied with Lundy's description.

It was found that a man of the same description had sold things taken from the suitcase, disposing of a camera for 25 cents.

Pebble Beach Matron
To Act As Patroness

Mrs. F. R. Ingalls of Pebble Beach has been appointed as one of the hostesses for the Mills College Blue Eagle Fashion Tea to be held Friday afternoon in the Garden Room of Hotel St. Francis from three to five o'clock.

The tea is sponsored by the Athletic association of Mills college.

Orchestra Is Getting Ready For Concert

A large crowd gathered at the Denny-Watrous gallery Sunday night to hear the Monterey Peninsula orchestra rehearse for their Christmas program. They gave Fingel's Cave by Mendelssohn and a Prelude. They also did some sight reading and astonished their listeners by their hospitality.

The orchestra has several new members who are taking advantage of the wonderful opportunity of working under Michel Penha.

The campaign in Carmel for funds for the Community chest will start on November sixth and continue until the eleventh. Carmel derives direct benefit from the money contributed but has the added satisfaction of helping those communities which cannot raise enough money to take care of their needs. Carmel shares this privilege with the Highlands Pebble Beach and the Country Club districts.

The character building work of the Boy and Girl Scouts of Carmel is just as important as it ever was and but of these receive financial aid from the Chest. A new agency of the Chest is the Milk Fund which will provide milk for undernourished children in the schools including Sunset School.

Carmel has no facilities for taking care of transients and arrangements have been made whereby these may be sent to the Salvation Army who will care for them temporarily before sending them on their way.

The public is invited (cost 35c) to a supper to be given by the Girl Scouts for the Campaign Workers at the Scout House on Sunday evening, November fifth, at six o'clock.

Workers of former years as well as those who wish to help for the first time, are asked to communicate with Bernard Rowntree.

Son-In-Law of Carmel
Woman Is Killed

When the account was given recently of the fatal shooting of Gordon Lillibridge in holdup in Oakland, there were probably only a few here who recognized the victim as being the son-in-law of Mrs. Ruth H. M. Lewis. Mr. Lillibridge was with the Coca Cola people when holdups attempted to rob him.

Mrs. Lewis has just returned from Oakland where she was visiting at the time of the tragedy. She and her daughter were getting ready to attend a show, when Mrs. Lillibridge talked with her husband over the phone. Within ten minutes a call came that he had been killed.

Another Fast Card at Presidio Bow! This Friday Night

By The Sports Editor

The army post is putting on what looks like the best card up to date and that is saying a lot as they have not put on a poor card yet.

The main event, Homer Brandis and Gene O'Grady, should be a wow. The boys met a few weeks ago and Brandis won but O'Grady gave him plenty of trouble and the fight was close and hard all the way. J. E. Mitchell, O'Grady's manager says that the day before the last fight his man fell and hurt his side.

In the semi-final Buck Anderson and Rusty Westman meet in a rematch and it looks like it will be some battle as the last time they met, the two army boys plastered each other with everything but the timekeeper's watch.
Bud Naulty, Presidio flash, meets another army boy by the name of Roberts. This should be a good fight as both boys have fought in the islands and have had plenty of experience in the ring.

Derry Berry and Johnnie Manchu should put up a good battle as both boys hit like mules and mix it from the bell. It looks like Derry Berry's fight. Neither knows enough about boxing to write home about.

Larry Wright another one of Big Mitch's fighters meets Doc

Meddick of the Presidio. It should be a good battle as both boys are clever boxers and both carry knockout drops in either mit.

Al Suldickus and Bob McPherson meet in the curtain raiser. It should be a real fight as both boys are sluggers.

The first fight starts at eight o'clock, and last but not least two nine year old wild cats fight two two-minute rounds.

Frank Dalton Wins at Salinas

Frank Dalton, Carmel welterweight, won the nod over Howard Tevis at Salinas last Friday on one of the best fight cards seen in that city in many a moon.
The outcome was never in doubt as the Carmel boy carried the fight from the first bell and had the dusky boy from the islands in a bad way most of the time.
It was Frank's third fight and the score card stands, won two and lost one. Carmel takes her fighters seriously as there were over a hundred fans who made the trip. Frank fights again at Salinas a week from Friday. The first fight will go on at eight thirty and Frank will climb through the ropes at about nine thirty.

Don't fail to see this fight as the Carmel youngster is going places and doing things.

THE WATERCRESS EATER

This section has a pioneer
Who said he knew A patient who Was mighty sick for 'bout a year.
And worse he got as time went by,
Till old "Doc" Jim
Had said to him,
You just as well go home and die"
And so he went, my old friend states,
And ate a mess
Of watercress,
And took his chances with the fates.
He cut his ration down on cress.
Till every day
He ate we'll say
About an ounce of it or less.
And he ate daily for a year
An ounce or less
Of watercress.
And felt his ill health disappear.
And then he made his last mistake
To visit him
They called "Doc" Jim
Who posed as doctor tho a fake.
And so the patient played his part
And faker too,
As gun he drew
And plugged his caller through the heart.
Old "Doctor" Jim, so natives state
In his dark cell
Prayed long and well
For him he slew in jealous hate.

Carmel Valley

When Jack Ball, cattle man on the Rancho Del Monte returned from a short honeymoon on October 14, he was given a real old-fashioned charivari by his many friends on the ranch and elsewhere in the valley. It turned out to be quite a party and lasted into the wee sma' hours, but everybody enjoyed himself and all felt that the host had been given a true and hearty welcome home.

It is practically decided that there will be a school bus run out the valley some time in the near future to take care of the score of students that attend Monterey Union High from that section. After it is started, the school will no longer pay any student anything for bringing his own car to school, as heretofore. If he wishes to do so, he must bear the expense himself, as do the others who come in their own cars. The bus will probably go as far out as Girard's though it is to be kept at Robles del Rio. Mr. Peifer, one of the industrial course teachers at the high school is to drive it, as he resides in Robles del Rio himself. Most of the students and parents concerned are in favor of the plan, though some of the former would prefer driving their own cars and being reimbursed, as they are now. Many of the parents will no doubt feel easier in their minds. The idea of the bus was started when the State Board of Equalization made the expenses practically prohibitive for Mr. Herbert Brownell, who now transports five students to school, to continue doing so. He decided that he could not keep on doing it, so after a conference with J. R.

Highlands

So eager is the Highlands Fire Department to start their activities that they have planned a dance at the American Legion Hall in Monterey on Saturday, October 28th. Besides dancing there will be other forms of entertainment which will lend a sophisticated night club air to the Fireman's Ball.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sanford are being extensively entertained by their many friends prior to their departure for their New York home.

Mrs. Millicent Sears is an active member of the Carmel Play reading group and has been recently appointed a member of the "Selection Committee." Acting in this capacity she will select the plays to be read in the future.

Fletcher Dutton spent the past week-end with his mother Mrs. Laura Dutton.

Mrs. Winslow once a resident of Highlands and now living in Berkeley, was the week-end house guest of Mr. and Mrs. John O'Shea. On Sunday Mrs. O'Shea entertained at a beach party for Mrs. Winslow.

Miss Marguerite Tickle entertained at a bridge luncheon last Tuesday. As her guests she had Mrs. Thomas Lewis, Mrs. Richard Wentworth, Mrs. Anthony Brasil, Mrs. Del Slipner, Mrs. Clinton Taws, Miss Charlotte Lawrence, Miss Kathleen Doud, Mrs. Guy Kurtz, Mrs. James Collins, Mrs. George Spidell, Miss Annetta Doud.

Just Anything

By Just Anybody

Do you spell it "consensus" or "concensus?" I nearly always spell it incorrectly, too.

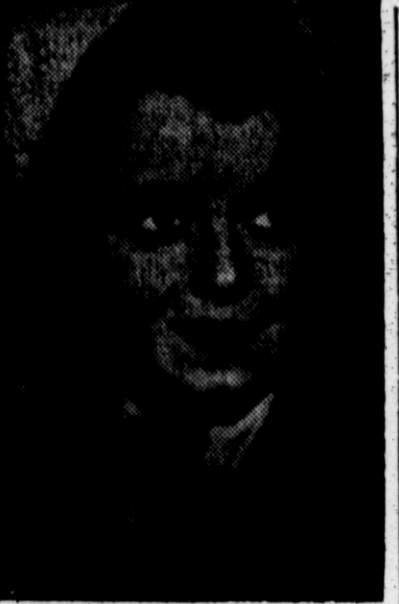

A sweet young girl of Carmel recently went dancing at Del Monte with a young man. During the evening, the y.m. remarked "Say, I have sure smelled a lot of garlic around here this evening. Didn't you notice it?" "No, I haven't," replied the y.g. And it didn't occur to her until next day that she had partaken of roast meat for dinner, thoroughly seasoned with the offending garlic.

"Well, how's business?" said one paper salesman to another. "Look in your own order book," growled back the second.

With price fixing associations how will bidding on public construction be handled? The Sun editor is informed that the law states that it is a criminal offense for bidders to get together and decide on bids to be offered.

J. A. Kunstman has this story to tell. One time when he was working at the Santa Cruz theatre a film caught fire in the operating room. Operator No. 1 grabbed the reel and threw it out the window, under which his car was parked. Operator No. 2 rushed to the window to see where the film had fallen and cried, "Your car's on fire!" And he got so excited he dropped his watch into the burning car.

They told this on Frank Murphy, recently returned from Illinois. He supposedly had committed a crime in California and was sentenced to be hung here or go to live in Table Grove, Ill. He chose Table Grove, and found that he had made a great mistake.

STANIFORDS PLEASED WITH REXALL SALE

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Staniford, who are this week-end putting on their first Rexall One-Cent sale are more than pleased with the patronage and interest from Carmel people.

"We have always gone to Monterey for the Rexall sale, they have been told several times, and we are glad to have a Rexall store at home."

Many people are buying Christmas gifts with the extra penny where they would not otherwise feel that they could afford it.

The Staniford drug store was only recently made a Rexall store.

Art and Mrs. Bottle

Opens At Community

Carmel will see another of Edward Kuster's excellent productions this week-end, and "Art and Mrs. Bottle" is another sure fire hit. After two showings in Watsonville and Salinas the play is ripe for the most discriminating play-goer.

The cast has been well chosen and merited the favorable criticisms of the audiences and reviewers in the neighboring towns where the play was seen last week. Georgia Waple, from Hollister, plays the lead, originally played in New York by Jane Cowl. Supporting her are: Max Lightly, an elderly artist whose sense of humor creates the undercurrent of turmoil to the staid life of the Bottle family, played by Arthur Hateley. Yvonne Castle and Philip Remer as Judy and Michael Bottle complicate the lives of their father George, (Albert Van Houtte) and their mother Celia Bottle. Edwina Pinkham does the little Cockney artist model, Sonia Tippet; Tom Crosthwaite is the rejected suitor, Carley Dawes; and Parsons, the parlor maid, is played by Oudina Howser.

A high spot in rehearsals was when the cast had an argument about how much of how little an artist model should wear. The decision was reached without the aid of the cast! The model of the cast is consistently silent about her part and when asked about it would say nothing.

This week-end Thursday, Friday and Saturday are the nights of performance and the tickets will be on sale across from the postoffice in Carmel.

Carmel people fortunate enough to make high scores were: Mrs. Robert Leidig, Mrs. George Whitcomb, Miss Ethel Cooke, and Eva Mae Adcock. All report a splendid time.
